

Store, Share, Exchange: ESNIPS.COM

Esnips is the web site providing online space for easy storage, sharing and exchange of data. You can use esnips without registering too. But once you have registered you have many facilities to enjoy.

Esnips provides free registration. For registered user it provide 5GB online storage space where you can put video, audio, text, doc, pdf, rar, zip files. Also, you can easily view and download them anywhere. Again, material you uploaded is shared and other users will also get benefited from your material.

Generally, we feel some hesitation for registering online but for esnips you need not to care.

Personally, esnips is very good ebook provider for me. I got many books by just simple search in the search box of esnips, which includes business books, computer books, even books from languages other than English, too.
